

Athens food walking tour

Athens food walking tour

During this fun private food tour you will not only explore the streets of Athens but you will get to taste appetizing treats that locals enjoy as part of their daily routine.

You will gain insights into the development of our cooking methods, recipes and culinary traditions. We will be visiting dedicated artisans that have perfected their recipes over the decades, as well as specialized food stores sourcing the best products from all over Greece.

A culinary tour would not be complete without a visit to the city's vibrant central food market where local vendors exhibit their produce from across the country. Learn all about the tastes that Athenians cherish and indulge in a bountiful assortment of appetizing sweet and savory treats with our food-wise guide.
